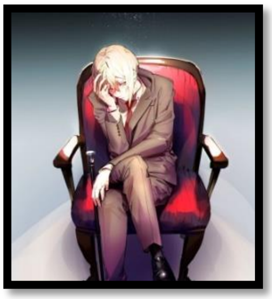
A story about those who once loved from the deepest places in their hearts

A story about those who once observed from the deepest places in their minds

This dirty world and his painful sins inside him are stealing bites from his soul slowly, until nothing remain, what a huge weight he feels in his heart, questioning himself, when will he be freed from all this mess !



Liam: do you know what sherly, I never thought in my life that I will meet someone like you, it was a dream for me, a piece of heaven that cannot be found on earth, but here I am with you, talking to you, think with you like a miracle that happen once every 1000 years, sherly looked down with a blush and astonishment not be able to say a word.

Louis tears the flowers petals one by one: my brother will come back, my brother will not come back, until the last petal. Then Louis gasped and looked to the sky, I know you are alive brother I know, but will you ever come back .. will you ?

Liam: do you see those clouds sherly, they are beautiful, I never saw clouds do beautiful like this before in my entire life.

Sherly: just how liam, we have been living in Britain our whole life, and those clouds appear frequently.

Liam: indeed sherly, what changed is my eyes, my heart and soul, and you are the one who made me see them in that beautiful way.

Sherly smirked softly and shyly, looking to the sky while his heart is beating freshly.

Sherly: maybe he do not know, but his face every morning looking to the sky, is just a an art for me, a precious piece of art, I still remember that feeling, that chills, that warmness inside me, those days were so precious and unique.

Sherly: you always do that pose while sitting on that red sofa, your hand on your cheek or crossing them, your crossed legs, cannot you just change it a bit ?! all your photos become the same !

Liam: what? No, impossible sherly, this is my signature, how do you want me to leave I, just take the photo.

Sherly sighing: ok liam !

Sherly: see liam, who ever imagined or even thought about a friendship story between Moriarty and Sherlock Holmes, the great detective and his greatest nemesis, the greatest Criminal in Britain, this never happened in any versions of my story.

Liam: oooh sherly, you made a little mistake, this time is my story, not your story sherly.

Sherly: ooh pardon me liam, I forgot.

When liam was the lord of crime

Liam: my dear sherly, not drugs that control you , not drugs that make you insane, but my absence and my ghostly existence is what drive you crazy.

Come on sherly, do as I told you, and I am not a ghost anymore, but a body in front of you.

In another universe

One year after liam death, John Watson: Sherlock please , you are killing yourself like this, you can get over Mr. Moriarty death, I know you can, you are strong Sherlock.

Sherlock: no Watson, you do not understand , it is not that I cannot get over liam death, but I do not want to get over it, I do not want Watson, I want to remember him with all the joy and pain inside me.

Sherly: this was one of the memories that hurt me too much, after liam got better and began to move, we started work together, but the truth, is that I was hearing a low crying voice every night, and I know it was liam, but I could not talk to him about that, until that night when he cannot bear the sorrow anymore and burst in tears in front of me, and I could not hold my tears too, so we begin to cry together, until we fall a sleep together with a relief soft smile.

Billy the kid: I took this photo of Sherlock and William in the evening of one day, when they were back to their apartment , in a beautiful rainy day, it is true that this photo in not that quality and clear, but it turned to be so warm and beautiful.

Louis: brother William, what symphony we will play now ?

William: the symphony of the class system death Louis, it is a bloody one, but the results are worthing.

Sherly & Liam: if I want to play the symphony of my life, I want it to be with you, that symphony can never be completed without your existence in my life !

(Now , that I know you exist, how I can, not to love you)

Sherlock: although my relationship with my brother Mycroft is not that strong, but I cannot deny that he taught me a lot, and he was always the one I look forward to, I miss you brother.. !

Liam: do you know sherly, I miss my family, my brothers Louis and albert, my comrades, fred, jack , moran and bond, I dream a lot about them recently, I wonder how they are doing now ?

Sherly: one of the most precious memories for me, when we were in new york, is liam face and his soft expressions every morning, when he is looking to the sun outside the window, with a sad but silent look, and his favorite flowers beside him, make him look softer and softer, his face always make me soft but sad at the same time, he was not the one who talk about his feelings and problems easily.

A strong cooperation with special feelings and friendship between a detective and a criminal, can the history allow this ? (What history, we are the history !)

Liam disappeared for 2 days, Sherly: you have no idea liam, how much worry I was when you disappeared for two days, I was looking for you everywhere , happy that you finally came back safely, damn liam do not make me worry like this again.

Sherly & Liam before going to new york: what we love about our relationship is that each one of us think that he control the other, while in fact we both were being controlled by our feelings toward each other, so both of us ended up in the same cage being in control and under control.

(but if you think that we hate this feeling, you are wrong, in contrary of what you think, this what helped us to grow more emotional toward each other)

Sherly: I still remember that day, that moment when I saw him that moment was so precious and priceless, I saw his soul, and watched him Penetrating my soul, I inhaled that moment, I felt it all over my body, and when he began to talk about me, reveal what I am, a fire ignited in my heart, and I got a warm feeling that I never felt before !

Liam: the truth of that day, is that it is not sherly strength what made me leave the sword from my hand, but the deep sorrow and tears in his eyes is what stabbed me hard, I realized that time that he wanted me to stop all of that, he wanted to free me, to free my soul, to plant the warmness in my heart, he came as a precious friend, not as a detective who want to arrest me.

(I can never forget those shiny eyes of him, that was ignited with the fire of determination to help me)

Liam: actually those repetitive hugs are what made me alive today, I owe him too much for opening his arms to me, every time he hug me, a part of my heart and soul being purified, it is just like a magic spell for me.

Liam: those head hugs were so precious to me, they were on time as I felt a lot that I worth nothing, and that I do not deserve to live, but every time I feel like this sherly began to hug me and put his head on my head, and this calmed me down and helped me retain my confidence !

Sherly: do you know what liam, I never loved roses before, but for some reasons they remind me of you liam, I see your bright red eyes in its petals, I see you strength and determination in its thorns, and your beauty blended with a taste of power in the flower overall , and they become my favorite flowers.

Liam: I loved playing with sherly hair when he fall a sleep after a long day of working, actually his hair is too soft and silky, he know very well how to take care of it.

Sherly about Liam: that soft look on his face when he look tired but comfortable is the best, I love this face of him so much.

Sherly: actually liam was kinder than I thought, when we were in britain he could only show me his irritated face with a very few chances of his soft side, but after we came to america, he showed a very soft side of him, that side that care too much about the important people around him, by buying me apples every day, since he knew that I love apples.

Liam: I love that cup of tea in the morning, it gives me the chills and energy to start the day, especially if it was from my brother Louis, and my favorite is Darjeeling.

Liam: Hello Mr. Holmes, can you please be the hero of this country, the one who will reveal the sins of the nobles of this twisted country, and I will be the villain who will erase them, I will carry my sins with me, and you will be the detective who will arrest me, so can you bring the story of Moriarty, the greatest Sherlock Holmes nemesis to its end !

Liam: I remember mentioning before that I love sherly hairs, so one day he was using a beautiful scent shampoo, and it was so delicious, so I took his hair in my hand and told him, come on sherly, has mercy on me, and he suddenly burst in laugh forgetting that he was embarrassed !

Liam: the beautiful thing about playing musical instruments with someone you truly understand, is that they will not mess with your melodies, and you can both cop and adapt together without producing a bad music sheet , and this is why I love to play the melodies of my life and thoughts with sherly, his existence always make my melodies sound more beautiful and stronger .

Liam: I remember smoking on the roof every night with sherly when we were in new york and these nights were absolutely the best, so if you think that smoking alone on the roof in a calm breezy night is calming and enchanting, then you never experience that with your best friend whom you rely on the most, my precious sherly, he made those nights better in 1000 times, his speech, ideas, intellectuality and his ability to discover my feelings and ideas by just hearing and noticing my smoking habits, it was something I was literally living for, just an amazing mind to befriend with.

Sherly: this was one of the sad memories I have, after liam became better we started working together, but in some nights I was hearing a low crying voice coming from liam room, I really wanted to open up with him about it, but I could not, until that one night when he could not bear the sorrow anymore so he burst in tears in front of me, and I could not hold my tears and red face too, so we began to cry together, until we fall a sleep with a relief soft smile.

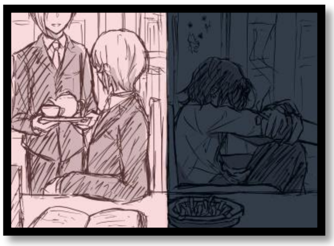
Sherly: one of the bad memories I have when we were in America, is dreaming about liam death, dreaming about me failing to save liam and losing him, these dreams were a real hell, I remember waking up in the night sweating, crying and panicking, thanks god, I no longer suffer from these now.

Sherly: hey liam can you teach me how to dance, I think I need to learn it for our next mission, as we will uncover as nobles and attending a dance party.

Liam: do you know what, I never believed in such a fate, soul mate or lover, or maybe a personal savior for me, but sherly appearance changed everything inside me, as for the first time in my life, I believed that it is ok to rely on someone , and as I know that I have the enough power and will to save myself and also the same power and will to destroy myself, sherly came to teach me, that he too , has enough power and will to save me, sherly taught me how to live, and how to enjoy living, I owe him a lot.

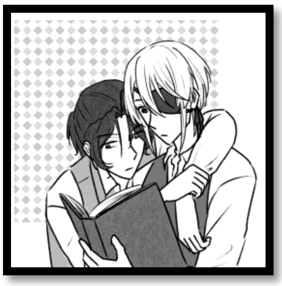
Sherly: I cannot deny how much worries I had in the previous days, in the days before our falling from the bridge, I was afraid from the idea of losing him , I really wanted to save him or die with him that night, not just because he deserve to live , but also because of a hidden deep feeling inside me, a selfish personal feeling of me, that I cannot bear the idea of living without him, so my unconscious choices were, to live with him or to die with him.

Liam: hello my diary, here is a little unharmful secret of mine, I love sketching and drawing, actually I have a sketchbook full of sherly portraits, but he should not know, as I will be embarrassed.



Liam and Sherly: you know we cannot lie about this, although we now that we are lucky enough to be alive now, although our life in America is exactly as what we want, cases, adventures, and affection between us, but we still miss out brothers, comrades and family, Family are always special, I can believe in that.

Sherly: actually liam sleeping habits was one of the most strange, he is older than someone who sleep anywhere and anytime, he do not sleep at night but in the day, but I cannot lie that I am happy enough to be in charge on taking care of him.



Sherly: aah liam, this is boring.

Liam: what is sherly ?

Sherly: I need a case liam, there is no cases, I am bored , aah really this world is lucky because I am not a criminal.

Liam smirking: indeed sherly, I can agree with this !

Liam: I was obsessed with the idea of losing my life, and I planned it very well, I thought that nothing will come in the face of my plan and everything will go perfectly, but instead of losing my life, I lost my eye, I think this is a punishment for me to atone for my sins, so this should not bother me that much, but I want to reassure that I have no regret over what I did, as I believed it was necessary that time, I wanted to destroy the nation for it to be built again differently .. !

Liam: although I am the one who really do not love close touches, but I cannot resist the urge to hug sherly when he is down or under stress, although he look strong and determinant all the time, like he was never weak in his entire life, but for a human how much of this pretending someone can bear, so I never hesitated showing love and care for sherly, and he never rejected me.

Liam: I cannot forget that look on sherly face the day I woke up from my coma, he looked very tired, like he barely has any good sleep lately, and these black strings under his eyes are telling me how much sleep he skipped to stay by my side, it hurt me to see him like this, but I was happy that he stayed with me all this time, and sad too realizing that he threw his life for me.

William about Louis: I was so worried about leaving my brother behind, but every time I look to his face I see his determination to live and the admiration for the life, and if you doubt his ability to live without me, I can tell you he can even do better than me, he is so smart, talented , reliable, has a good sense of the right and the wrong, and a long term view, Louis is one of the smartest, but he was always living in my shadow, not be able to shine, but his time to shine finally came.

Liam: this was in one of our trips to the beach, we had an off day, so we wanted to do something new, and we went to the sea, and sherly as always, he began to act dramatically as we are in a movie, he threw himself in the water and acted like he is dying, I laughed a little and I wanted to complete his drama so I threw myself too, it was a hilarious day, I enjoyed it too much, and I love the ways sherly use to make me happy and to see my smile.

Liam: this photo is a portrait in one of the exhibition in america, with the title -Lord of Crime- I was shocked seeing myself in a portrait in another country, but we found, that the Lord of Crime has a fan club with a lot of people supporting him exactly as Sherlock Holmes' fan club too, so it seems that the name (Lord of Crime) will live for a long time, may be decades or centuries.

Liam: actually this is a thing that I told no one before, but as you see now, I really cannot deny it , that view of sherly smoking in the morning under the golden sun rays that reflect on his white sharp face is the best, it became a habit for me to see him like this, and I cannot imagine this will stop soon.

Sherly & Liam: it was always like this, always the same, our hearts has been accumulated by our feeling toward each other, long before our minds can realize it , so what we call this, soulmates ?

Liam: sherly do you see these beautiful clouds in the sky, these clouds that fulfill the empty sky, adding elegancy and beauty to it, you are exactly like these clouds sherly, you fulfilled my life, my heart and my empty soul, you added beauty to them.

Sherly smiled softly: so if I am the clouds in your sky, you are the sun in my morning.

Liam: sherly if I left one day, will you forget me ?

Sherly: did you ever see an ocean without its beach, we are like this liam, I am a raged blue ocean and you are a golden soft beach, we can't not exist without each other, and if you go I will go.

Sherlock & William: we are indeed looking to the same sky, standing on the same land, but when the heart will find you ? when ?

Liam: welcome sherly I was waiting for you, have a cigarette, and join me in this warm breeze.

Sherly: yes liam, this breeze , is really everything .

(Sherly to himself, no, liam it is not about the breeze, it is about you)

Liam: sherly, where am I, it does not look like London ?

Sherly: if you want a precise answer, you are between my arms living in my heart, but in general we are in America.

Liam with sleepy eyes: yes, I see, America so, you have bested me again, sherly.

(Liam buried himself deeply in sherly arms and closed his eyes)

Sherly: do you know liam, I spent my whole life searching for the pleasure in solving puzzles and crimes, it was the thing that make me alive the most, but after meeting you, I realized something different.

Liam: what sherly, what did you see through me ?

Sherly: I realized that the real pleasure is not with the puzzles but having someone whom I can solve those puzzles and crimes with, a mind that can understand me, and saving me from my endless loneliness, this bond, this friendship, this pleasure, all are priceless liam, they are priceless because it was you, and no one else, I was a lonely flower and you are my butterfly that made me alive.

Liam: you also taught me how to have joy while solving these puzzles, sherly I am the moon who lost his sun, and you are my sun that I finally found.

Sherly to Liam: did you ever see a plant live without its leave, I am the plant and you are my leaves that keep me alive, we can't be separated.

Sherly: sweety liam, your eye is so beautiful, you do not need to hide it while we are together, it is ok to reveal it, your scars are your pride, and I am your backbone.

Liam with teary eyes: if you are my backbones that support me, I will be your rib cage that holds your heart.

Sherly: you all know how much I appreciate liam, and I am so happy that we are both alive now, working and living together, but I still think about the idea of what made him like this, I mean how he thought that he can be the angel with the devil act, what type of life he has before, of course after a long time, he realized that all of this is wrong, and unfortunately this came too late, but this idea will never leave me, that idea, that thing that make the people think they can be good by acting bad, is it the lack of trust to the this world and society, or realizing the weakness and disruption of the law enforcement, a lot need to be changed.

Liam: although me and sherly are happy and having a good life here in America, especially after all this mess that we were living in, a strong and deep feeling of frustration and sadness mixed with loneliness strike us sometimes, it is the feeling of losing an important things, losing our lives, our families, the needing of hiding all the time, and living very far from our families, it is hard and tiresome , but with the support we have for each others, like working, talking and helping each others in different aspects of life, like making food, do laundries and other simple things together, sometimes we have nights that we began to talk about our fears, pains, problems, hopes, future plan, and expectations of the futures we are going to, and this ease that feeling of loss, and helped us too much to feel that we are not lost neither alone.

Sherly: this was in one of the bars we went, at the time we had a mission, and we were after one of the gangster members, but we faced an unexpected situation, all the girls gathered around liam, trying to talk to him, or taking him to their rooms, I did not care that much, I said he will deal with that, it is not hard, but what a poor man, liam was completely dumb when it comes to women, so I had to intervene to save him, I told the girls, do you have something with my little brother ?

Please ladies leave him alone, and thank you for your concerns.

Sherly: that was in one of the dark nights we had in america, I came to the apartment very late, when I found liam in a deep darkness sitting and starting a cigarette, I asked him, what is wrong liam, having a cigarette by your own is not of your habit, what is wrong, what problem do you have ? - but he said nothing, so I took a cigarette from my pocket and light it, then I said: ha liam, I am free, and I have nothing now, smoke and exhale your problems to me, I am here for you.

Liam: this happened after sherly killed milverton, we met in one of london's lanes, I told him, (Sherlock, I know that you will kill me now, me, lord of crime your biggest enemy, actually before this time, I thought that your biggest obstacle will be killing someone, and I was relying on that actually, but once you killed someone, you can kill the second one easily, and I know that I reached my end, so before killing or arresting me, let me write some letters to my brothers, and end some of my works, and I will be grateful.

Sherly said with a sarcastic face: do you really think that I will kill you liam, you are hallucinating, and your thought that killing is an obstacle for me is hilarious, I am a person who has a great tendency to be a criminal, but my awareness prevent me from being one.

Then sherly screamed: Liam I want to save you, not to kill you, you fool.

sherly completed with soft face: how can I kill my dear friend, how liam ?, you mean for me more than you think.

(Liam: But I refused to believe that, I lowered my head and left)

Liam: what if I woke up one day to find that I did not really lost my eye, and that all of that was just a dream, aah what a weak person I am , what did I expect after all my sins, I atoned them by losing my eye, and I have no right to complain, please god forgive me for dancing with the devil.

Sherly Screaming: Liam I see two suns.

Liam: What you are talking about sherly ?

Sherly: one on earth in front of me and another above us.

Liam Lowering his head: can you please stop playing around and, and come we have a mission sherly.

Sherly while laughing: ooh the sun that on earth become red.

Liam: sometimes I miss those times, when I was laying on the sofa under the window in the mansion, enjoying the warm breeze with the beautiful flowers petals, these days were priceless memories can be so harmful yet so relieving.

Sherly: this was in the hospital after liam woke up, he was so weak and so slim, he lost a lot of his weight and muscle volume, he was not able to walk, so I was coming to him every evening carrying him to the roof, to enjoy the breeze and the beautiful scene of the city, liam was so strong, and he had a huge will to live, but sad because of his health status.

Liam: do you know sherly, I remember that I saw a blue butterfly in one of my dreams in my childhood, it flied toward me, sit on my shoulder and kissed me on my cheek, then it flied again, that dream was so warm and beautiful, I woke up while my heart is beating fast, I think this blue butterfly is you sherly, you came to save me, it was all fated from a very long time, I believe in fate sherly, and the ideas of soulmates.

Liam screaming looking to the sun: Sherly I am looking at you .

Sherly in bad mood: Liam, where are you looking at, and what you are talking about, liaaam, (sherly turn his head to see liam) liam loo..... (sherly lowering his head with embarrassment) Liamoo, are you trying to change my mood, thank you, I feel better now.

(sherly smiled and came near liam and put his hand around his shoulder, come on liam, let us go).

Liam: sherly, you have all that mind, and you still cannot remember how to do your tie, listen sherly, my head is getting heavy and I will show you how to tie it for the last time, (Liam screaming - THE LAST TIME SHERLY).

Sherly shivering: su..sure liam, last time, I swear.

Liam: I was crucifixion with the all scarlet threads I made in my entire life, and sherly came to free me, from that scarlet prison I put myself in, Sherly did not just solved the cases of the lord of crime, but freed me from him too, I left the lord of crime behind me, and I will never look at him again, of course it will appear in my dreams, but sherly is always there to save me.

Sherly to Liam: what if in another world, our story has ended with me sherlock killing you ,liam, that ending will be sad and full of pain, maybe I will be able to not go to the jail, and even live as the hero who ended the lord of crime, but what life I will live without you liam, nothing, I will not be able to live, it will be the worst life ever, the pain, guilt, emptiness and agony will hunt me forever, this is why liam, me and you are living in the best world now, maybe I killed you in another world, and in another world you succeeded in your suicide, but if there is another good world is when we both died together after falling from the bridge, so any world we are not together in it, is not a beautiful world for me.

The best worlds are where we are together, dead or alive it is not important.

Liam: I want to confess to you sherly, and I think that I confessed before but I just want to reassure, that from the first time I met you sherly, I wanted to leave everything I have to just solve puzzles with you, that sparkle in your eyes when you talked about the murder on the noahtic stole my heart and ignited my soul, I saw that joy you have, and I wanted you to infect me with it, and now my wish become true, living together, solving puzzles together, although it has its own price, but at least I am happy and this time I am ready to die for you sherly to protect you, not to escape, this time my death will be to achieve in my life, not to escape from my life.

Liam: living with sherly was so pure and so energetic, it was like a purification ceremony for me, he was picking all my dead, bloody, sick flowers that grew on me and planting a warm, fresh and beautiful flowers of him inside me, he was renewing the garden of my soul, and giving me parts of his soul, it was so refreshing.

People look to what they yearn for, and those eyes can't lie.

After 15 years of the Final Problem case.

Liam looking the photo: this was 13 years ago in america, me and sherly were working together, he was always energetic but I was always shy when he is doing things like that, I am not that one who like close relationships or touching, but sherly was so open, Sweety sherly I miss you too much, looking at your photos now, is like I am looking to a lost sun, I lost a very precious part of my life, the day I will see the light again is the day I will find you and see you.

Sherly looking to the photo: my dear friend liam, I miss you so much, where can I find you now, every day is passing without you, I am loosing parts of my soul, and the darkness begin to eat me from inside, the loneliness, and the boredom, after a lot of time, I realized that your existing is what I want, your scarlet eyes, your beautiful golden hair, your warm heart, your aging soul, your breath taking smile, when will I see again, please god, let me see liam again, just for one time.

Liam: When I was in my coma, I dreamed a lot about sherly planting a lot of flowers near to me, flowers were everywhere, blue flowers were grown in my heart, in my eye, in my hands, and they were soft, warm and beautiful.

After I woke up, Sherly told me that he was with me all the time, he was holding my hands every time he arrived, telling me beautiful stories to prevent bad dreams, he was washing my face, my hands, and my body with warm water, he shaved my facial hair, and took special care of my injured eye, by adding medical creams.

Separated For 3 Months -

At one mission me and sherly were separated for 3 months, every one of us went to a different city to work, and the following post will be the short letters we got from each others for support, we reminded each other that we are here for each others.

Sherly to Liam: I know when the darkest thoughts attack you, because I am in every reflection of you, remember me every time those darks hands are attacking you, I will be with you, fighting with you, because we are one, and cannot be separated , time and space cannot affect the fate thread we have.

Liam to Sherly: I know every time you have hard time sherly, because I can hear you play your violin, I can detect it from thousands of sounds, because I am in every note you play.

Sherly to Liam: I know every time you reach your limit, because I can sense your soul, like no one can, so when you feel that everything is dark, remember me, because I am in every beat of your heart, I feel you like you feel yourself.

Liam to Sherly: I know when you light a cigarette sherly, because I can sense your breaths in the air like no one did, so every time you light one, remember me, I am in every breath of yours.

Liam: I don't think I will find someone who can understand my mood from my way of smoking rather than sherly , from the deepness of my breath, my smoking time, the number of cigarettes, and other details, just sherly can do that, just sherly can hear my mind without the needing to talk.

Liam about Sherly -

I did not find the one who understand me, but the one who can see the world as I do, the one who can see behind the walls as I do, not a lot can do that but sherly can, I found the one who can live in my lonely world, the one who has my words, my ideas, and my vision, the one who can say my words before I do.

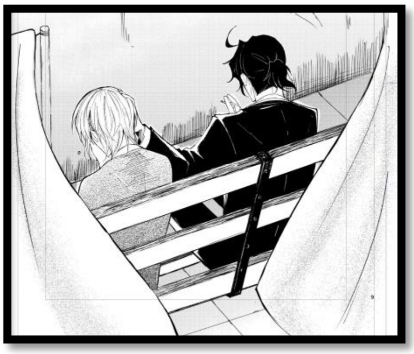
Sherly about Liam -

Actually it was not about finding a friend, but was about finding the one who has the lost pieces of my puzzles, I found the lost prince in my lonely palace, the one who has the lost keys of my gardens of joy, the one who has my words, ideas, and my vision , the one who can complete my puzzles before I do.

On The Roof -

Sherly: I remember that time after liam woke up from his coma, when we were sitting on the bench on the roof, he was so sad, so miserable, very weak, he was a skeleton , and he told me that a nurse who carried him to the roof to take some air, and that day I was the one who carried him down to his room.

Liam cried a lot there, blaming himself for his miserable health especially his lost eye, and that time liam screamed at me, why I saved him, he was not happy, he was lost, afraid from the future, do not know how he will face his brothers, But I told him - (Liam I will never leave you) and that we will work as detectives after his recovery and regaining his strength, and you can't believe the sparkle that lightened his eye that day, my dear liam he was just afraid from the future, from the loneliness, and the abandoning, Maybe my face did not show that, but my heart was bursting and screaming with every tear came down from liam's eye, that day was so harsh for my heart.



Liam: the day I decided to leave my brothers and comrades to end my life, and only my life, was so hard, and selfish, you may not believe me but it was selfish, I wanted to run away from my life and my sins, letting my brothers being tortured alone by our pasts and sins.

But ... but really death is bad, I could not let them die with me, I wanted to give them the chance to live and atone, to live the life they wanted with the beliefs they own, not affected by my beliefs and my ideas anymore, forgive me brothers, forgive me louis, please god keep them safe, I know I don't deserve your mercy, but my brothers' sins were only one of my many sins.

Liam: my brother albert once asked me why you are dancing with the devil alone now william, we were dancing together, what happened brother ? , but I did not answered him, and just smiled softly to him, I patted on his shoulder, then said do not worry brother.

I was afraid to tell him, that I decided to end all of this mess by my own, by throwing my life away, leaving them behind me, I was afraid albert will do this before me, I was afraid he will leave me behind, because I was always feeling guilty for using him in my plan of changing this country, albert is not just a comrade or brother, he mean more than that for me.

But now I regret that, I regret that I did not tell him the truth, I regret that I did not answered him properly, I never ever thought that I will live to regret this moment, forgive me brother albert, forgive me please, I wish if I can meet you , and tell you everything I wanted to tell you.

Sherly writing a letter that he will not send: sorry brother mycroft, for leaving you like this, although I know where are you, and I know that I can send you a letter anytime I want, but ... but brother I can't, this will put liam in a risk, sorry brother for making you think that I died, it is true that our relationship was not that strong, but you were always and will stay the only one I can trust in anything in my life, sorry for making you worry, sorry for not be able to send you this letter.

Liam entered my room, and this was the first time ever he see me crying, he was affected too much, he was shock, he burst in tears and hugged me tightly, and this made me calmer.

Sherly: minutes before taking the nap, Liam whispered in my ear: did you ever think in your life that you will find a friend who can share you your puzzles with the same passion and abilities you have ?

I replied: no liam I never thought about that, because what I found is not someone who just can share me my puzzles, but a friend whom I can share my adventures with, thank you liam for being with me all this time.

Liam: that night was so dark and moonless, it was cold and foggy outside, sherly was thinking hardly with one of our cases, he began to ignite the tenth cigarette, at this time I hit the table with my hand strongly and screamed at sherly - (how many lungs do you think you have sherly, this is your tenth cigarette, you are killing yourself), sherly looked at me sharply, he said: liam you know, you already know liam that I should smoke when I am thinking, what happened now, you turned into my mother, just leave me alone.

Sherly hit the door strongly and went outside, I felt guilty, I just wanted to save his health, I was afraid from losing him, I did not mean to annoy him.

I went after him in the cold outside, to search for him, if these cigarettes will not kill him, this cold surely will, I found him in the port between the bog shipping boxes, I screamed (sweety sherly, why you are here, come please, sorry for bothering you, really I did not mean that, but sherly replied - no liam, it is me, it is my fault, I am sorry I did not think about my health enough and I was making you worry about me all this time without noticing.

Liam: sherly do you see those lighten stars, they are you, exactly like you, every time I look at them I see you .

Sherly: how liam, how those stars resemble me?

Liam: they lighten the people path in the deep darkness of the night, they are beautiful, they make you feel warm, they make you feel happy, they are strong, full of energy and (liam with a slightly sad face) they are very far away from you.

Sherly: why liam, the last sentence, we are always together, why do you think that I am far away from you?

Liam with a sad face looking to the sky: it is not that you are far away from me, but what I am sad about is that day, when each one of us will go to his own way, we will not stay together forever sherly, this is the life.

Sherly with a smirk: oooh really liam, what about if we died together here, so we will not be separated.

Liam: what sherly, what you are talking about ?

Sherly threw himself from the balcony they were on, and liam threw himself after sherly, liam screamed : (sherly you bloody insane detective, how can you threw yourself without taking me with you, do not ever think sherly that I will let you jump alone).

sherly knew that there is another balcony under them, so they jumped to it, and began to laugh hysterically.

Sherly: I entered liam's room to wake him up in the morning, but I was hampered with a box on the ground, the box moved and a lot of letters scattered on the ground, I took these letters to see what they are, to find that they are an unsend letters liam wrote to his family, brothers, comrades and even me, and one of those letters were ...

(Dear my Sherly, I want you to be with me, but I do not want to hurt you with my thorns, I want to protect you from myself, there is a demon inside me a very dark soul, and a very sick heart, but I still want you to stay with me, so I will protect you from all my sick parts with everything I have, with everything I can, thank you sherly for being with me all this time, and sorry for getting you stuck with me)

The ink in the letter was smeared, it was obvious that liam was crying while writing it, I wiped the tears from my eyes, and got out of the room, I did not take my breakfast that day, neither talking to anyone, liam said nothing to me, but he was smiling at me with a sad face all the day, I know he knew that I saw the letters, there is no words needed to be said, we both were calm and out of energy.

But after some times, the silence begin to be so heavy, so I stood up and went to liam, I kissed him on his head and told him, no liam, you are not a demon, you are my dear friend, you was always a precious part of my life and you will always be.

That day was insane, liam was so desperate and screaming like crazy.

Liam Screaming: it was near, it was easy, we could, we was able to save him, he was in front of us sherly, so why, why he should die, why sherly, he was just a young boy who has been taken as a hostage by that insane criminal, (Liam's eye turned red completely and his voice became deeper and slower) then he said, sherly this world is the worst, why I should see things like these again here, why bad people can never end, why innocent people should always suffer for nothing, just for this sick and dirty world.

Then liam burst in tears and fell down, I came as fast as I can, I hold his hands and took him to another place under some trees, it took hours for him to speak again, but I stayed with him patiently until he fell a sleep, I carried him and went to our apartment.

Sherly about himself: I was not able to say a word that day, like I lost all my words, all my words seemed helpless, this self torturing is a part of our job as detectives, we can not save everyone, we are not heroes, we are just humans who try to act as heroes, sorry for being weak, but what is the amount of power that one man can has, it is nothing compared to this world's demons who work with a nasty hands.

Ones of the best moments I remembered are the calm dark nights in america, especially when we ran out of candles, and we cannot buy more because the groceries stores were close at this hour, and we have no choice other than sitting in the dark, and as always sherly began to ignite his cigarette, then talking about our cases, adventures, moments and other things laughing and smiling together, and when I feel that I am in a very good mood, I took a cigarette from sherly to smoke with him, and a match to ignite it, but some nights were too dark to see anything.

Liam: sherly give me a cigarette and a match, I feel like smoking.

Sherly: ah liam take it, here a cigarette, but match, where my matches are... damn this darkness !!

Liam bending toward sherly: you are too slow sherly, just forget about that, do not move, I will use your cigarette to ignite mine.

In the morning of one day-

Sherly Screaming: LIAAAAAAM , what is this liam, I can not use the mirror, the walls are all full of papers, what is this, math, is this math papers on the wall ?

Liam waking up half sleeping, rubbing his eyes: what sherly, why you are screaming in this morning, OOOOOH my papers do not touch them, I need them like this, I was doing derivation of a mathematical equation to use it forensic science, especially forensic engineering, look sherly by using this equation that combines the location of the bullet and the victim, we can exactly know the location of the snipper, from which building and in which floor.

Sherly with widening eyes: wow liam this is amazing, this is perfect, I like that too much, give me those papers to read after you finish them please.

Liam with a happy face: sure sherly (liam to himself - sherly my little child, everything is related to forensic science make him happy).

Actually Liam never stopped reading and writing papers about math, and he specialized in forensic science, using the math to help in this field in many ways, he did not use his real name in the papers but instead a fake name, and he played a great role in the development of what we called today ballistics.

In one morning before going to work, I was struggling with wearing my eye patch, so sherly came and helped me, and that time I asked him.

Liam: sherly what is the most important thing in your life ?

Sherly looking to liam eye with a soft smile: uhhhm I wonder liam, the most important thing for someone, should be something or someone, you are willing to throw your life away for it, it is that thing you spend your whole time thinking about it without realizing that, is that thing you smile whenever you look at.

Sherly about Liam: You may ask me if I cried before, yes I cried, not before too long, I may seem strong , someone with a heavy heart, with a soul of rock, with a lot of stamina, a man without tears, but no, no, no what did you think of me ?!! I am a human , just a human, and yes I cried before, not from pain, not from failure, not from disappointing, no case , no crime can make me cry, dead people do not make me cry , but the alive ones, who can be dead by now, but they are not.

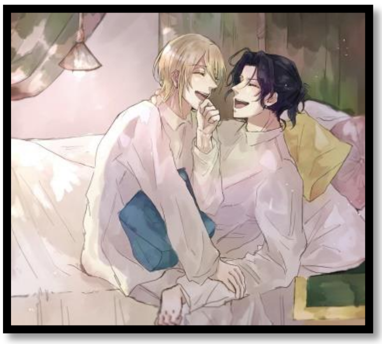
Who made me cry you ask ? one man made me cry, that man is not an ordinary man, a man who gave the world everything, yet this world gave him nothing, I never was be able to see his real smile, I never sensed the warmth come from his heart, and I never sensed his vision for his future, but that day, when he decided to give up and leave, I wanted to leave with him too.

Why, You asked me Why ? I do not know why, but I knew that time that if I did not go after him, I will not stay alive anymore, at that time I saw my soul being burned over and over.

Oooh yes about me crying, I cried when I finally was be able to see his true smile, and sense the warmth come from his heart, I cried when I saw the flowers in his soul finally bloomed, that time I cried.

Do You Know Sherly ?

Liam: I can tell you clearly that sherly is one of the most misunderstood one ever, a lot of people think that he is a man of a great stamina, the strongest ever, someone who cannot be shaken by anything , but I know this is not true !! this is not real ! sherly is so soft, so delicate, he has tons of feelings but he does not have the doors to get them out, he usually do not show anyone his feelings.



When we came back from work one day, he locked himself in his room never got out from it, he did not take his dinner, I was knowing, I was knowing this, I was sure that he was being destroyed from the inside, I knew that he was so tired, his heart was so heavy, but I never has the courage to tell him that, to ask him what is wrong ?, actually this was repeated day after day, until I cannot resist myself from entering his room to check him, I opened the door and screamed ...

(Sherly, sweety, Why you are doing this to yourself, if there is something just tell me, we are friends, we are roommates, we work together, do you remember what I told you in my letter, I want to be your friend, to be friends who help each other out - I held sherly hands - , to take each other hands like true friends do, so please sherly tell me, sherly let me hold your heavy heart, let me share you your sad soul, sherly , share your pain with me, do not carry them alone).

Sherly looked softly to me with relieving and red teary eyes, like he finally realized that he should not bear everything by his own, he knew he can share me his pain, his hopes, and some of his heavy heart.

And from that day, we began to laugh together and cry together, with no secrets, just pure confessions.

My arms are the place that you belong to, not the river liam, not the river, let us both live.

The Guests -

Liam slowly closing the book, while lying on the sofa of the hotel they are in: OOOk, it seems that our friends finally arrived, (Liam with a smirk) let us have fun sherly.

Sherly with a devilish smirk, while pulling his gun: eeeh liam, it will be an interesting night I see.

The Boy and The Ghosts -

Liam: one day me and sherly were walking in the street, we saw a boy with his mother, the boy seems to have some psychological problems as he was diagnosed with schizophrenia , and he was telling his mother over and over that he see demons and ghosts, and asked her (mom do you see them, do you see them) and his mother kept yelling at him, no George, no they are not real, just forget about them, do not think about them, I do not see them, no one see them, then the boy began to cry.

Sherly approached the boy, he put one hand on his shoulder and smiled to him: yes george I can see them, I can see them with you george, you are not alone george, we are all with you, but george you are strong, you can fight them, you can pass by them, you can erase them , and I will fight them with you, do not worry.

I looked to the lady and told her: mam, your son is hallucinating and it is part of his disease, you should accept that and support him, those demons and ghost exist in his world, and he can feel them, and as they will never stopped existing in his world, he should learn how to fight them, how to live with them, how to not be bothered by them anymore, how to overcome them we cannot tell him they are not exist, because unfortunately they are exist in his small dark world (liam shed some tears then left with sherly).

My Dear Sherly -

Liam: my dear sherly, how sweet he is, how soft he is, I thought that I will die with no one to remember me, I will die with the pain in my heart, but he came and caught that aching soul of me before falling in hell and he embrace it deeply with his soft heart, thank you, thank you my dear friend sherly, the only one who saw my true aching heart, my sick teary soul, my twisted desire to live, that I hide it from everyone, no one saw it, no one felt it, no one looked for it , but he did, my sherly did, and saved them.

How Do You Feel Liam ?

Sherly asking liam, How do you feel now liam ?

Liam grabbed sherly and looked at his eyes and said: I spent my whole life playing with death, playing with misery, with sacrificing, blood, brutality, this life hided from me all the paths but one path, the path of blood.

Look, it is all about luck, the one who was born as an orphan and the wealthy spoiled boy in his father palace, did we live the same, felt the same, saw the same ?... no, no, of course not, so it all depended on how and where we lived, so depending on this ,the life opened for us the paths that we can go through to live, sherly, this life wanted nothing from us except living, (Liam Screaming) but it did not care how ?

So if you asked me, if I had different paths other than blood, killing, pain, agony .. I can tell you no, as it was the only path I was allowed to go, to live, and no one stopped me, no one stopped me from walking this path.

So if you asked me, if it is about luck, yes it is, but hell you think that this unchangeable, because it can be changed, just weak souls who think like this, and I am not sherly, I am not one of those weak souls.

when I was a kid, I thought that I was so powerful to live and take whatever I want, but no, now I realized how much weak I was for insisting to think only about that filthy path but I am thankful for this confidence as is the thing that helped me.

And liars who told you, they do not want to live, everyone want to live, but the question is, is this life really worth all this pain, agony, and breaking to live in it, (Liam looking sharply to sherly eyes) usually no, absolutely no !

Sherly looked down with a surprised, sad look, then with a sad smile, he hugged liam, and said: thank you liam for sharing with me your deepest feelings, nothing of this important now, you are free now, you are free.

Liam: Sherly can you please share me what you are thinking about, if it is a case, a problem or anything I can help you.

Sherly: sure liam, come closer please, now sit .. (put his hand on liam hand) now we can think together liam (with a soft, comfy smile).

Sherly: what a precious red diamond I have found, so unique, so beautiful, so elegant, so bright, yet it has a hidden dark sides, so illusory, yet so luxury, and genuinely obvious, very hard from outside, but very soft, very weak and highly windy from inside, so polished from outside, but very broken from inside, so why I am so dazzled by this piece of diamond ?

Liam: I have never saw a blue flower before, but they are so unique, so warm, so strong and so vivid, yet so soft, it has a protective thorns, these flowers are everywhere around me, and their petals are spreading and flying like beautiful birds, I never cared about flowers in my entire life, but what I felt with those unique flowers is priceless, so why I am so dazzled by these flowers ?

Sherly: me being a detective and you a criminal does not mean that we cannot get along together, because there is light in the darkness and darkness in the light, this is why we are made for each other, darkness need light to exist, peace need evil to exist, and the solution need its own problem to exist too, so liam you complete my darkness and I complete your light, we are the real flawless due, we are the prefect due, this is what we are liam, this is what we are!

Sherly: in our early days in America, liam was totally mentally broke down, sad, crying, isolating himself regularly, I felt just that he do not want to keep strong and solid anymore, he wanted to scream, to cry, to curse, to say everything he could not before, to complain like he could not before, and I was telling him regularly to never hide anything in his heart and to talk whenever he feel, whenever he want, because I am always here.

Sherly: I was asking myself regularly, just how could a heart like liam's heart hold a mind like him, man, just these two cannot come together, a soft heart, an intelligence mind, and bloody hands, these are the worst combinations of acts and emotions I ever saw.

Sherly: I woke up one day, finding that liam wrote a letter telling me to leave him if I ever feel heavy while dealing with his own stress and his messy mind, because he cannot bear seeing me being tortured with him, so I told him – (liam my dear friend, my mind is more messy than you even, do you think a drug addict like me, do not know how to deal with messy minds, my dear liam, we are meant to stay together, with or without our messy minds, it is the fate not me liam, it is the fate).

The shooting sound –

Hearing gun shots, billy the kid hurried to sherliam apartment screaming, who is there, what happened, what are these gun shots ?

But he stood with a surprising face, when he saw both sherly and liam holding guns and laughing, he screamed, what TF happened here ? and what is this ? the wall, damn the wall is full of bullets ?

Sherly said: I told liam that he cannot hit this area of the wall if he tried from this place, considering the speed of the bullet and the degree of its deflection, but he told me that he can hit it easily, so I told him to show me how, but he refused to shoot and said that he will prove it to me mathematically using physics equations, by using the bullet's speed, mass, degree of deflection and angle of the firing, he calculated and proved the correctness of his theory.

Sherly: but I kept telling him that all this remains theoretical as long as I did not see it with my own eyes, and I continued provoking him until he fired to prove the correctness of his theory, and for my joy I shot with him on the wall too (sherly continued with a big grin) bottom line dear billy, I finally succeeded in provoking liam to shoot the wall.

Billy looked at them with a devilish smirk and said: ooooh really, so it has been deducted from your salaries this month, the price of repairing the wall.

Sherliam screamed together: noooo please, nooo, it will be the last time, we swear.

Sherly: if you asked me how were my days in the united states, I can tell you that some of them were so hard for me to bear, after a month of waiting liam to wake up, I began slowly to lose hope, that day was so windy and cold, this cold and loneliness left me in pain and agony, I was so afraid to think that I may lose liam forever if he never wake up, I violent thought strike me in my head, telling me that I lost liam forever, and that I failed saving him, I failed his family, brothers and comrades, I could not fulfill my promise in saving him, so I just went outside in the cold and I cried a lot, I cried like a child, then I wiped my tears and went back to my apartment looking to liam room, wondering when he will fill his own room, when he will come, when he will wake up ?

One hour before the dinner, john is looking for Sherlock everywhere, and while he is talking with Louis asking him about Sherlock, a sudden sound of explosion was heard from the kitchen …!

Louis widened his eyes, knowing who is in the kitchen, he grabbed his knife and went to the kitchen, he saw all the kitchen full of soot and Sherlock laughing as his experiment has been successful … !

2 hours later –

Everyone are still trying to convince Louis to put Sherlock down and not throwing him from the rooftop, as he apologized for the hundredth times.

And everyone is panicking except one calm man with a black suit, who has a silly smile and drinking tea, then he screamed: sherly if you can find where I hide my cigarettes, I will give you the first point and tell Louis to leave you.

Sherlock screamed: and if I did not find ?

Mycroft: then sorry sherly, MI6 can not help you in this case (he laughed).

Sherly screamed: MIKKKEY you MF … !

One hour before the dinner, liam and sherly talking together in the piano room in the moriarty mansion.
Sherly screaming while hitting liam to the wall: we need to end that fast liam, we agreed to do it liam, we agreed, so do not disappoint me, and we should tell them too !!

Liam: what telling them too, now in the dinner !

Louis and fred sneaking beside the room looking from the door lock.

Albert and von herder walked beside them and asked louis and fred, what they are doing here and if everything is well prepared for the dinner, so louis replied: nothing bother, we were just cleaning here and yes do not worry everything is well prepared.
James bond climbing the stairs while looking to louis and fred whispering to each other, he suspected a thing, but did not know what is happening !!

At the table of the dinner -
louis is looking to william with a very wide smile while looking sharply to sherlock as he willing to eat him, mycroft noticed louis eyes, as he worked a lot with him and know very well when louis is hiding or stressing from something, louis looked to fred stressfully, while fred could not look to louis and afraid from looking to william face.
The mood in the dinner was so heavy and a chilling wind can be felt roaming around them with a huge silence.

After some minutes sherlock broke the silence and said: so guys, there is something we need to tell you, me and lia....
Fred screamed stopping sherlock from completing his sentence: Mr.holmes, no need to tell us, you really do not need to tell us , it is yours and william business, so you can to tell no one, it is your right, both of you.

Sherlock: why fred how do you know..., but no, no we really need to tell you guys, it is not just about us but about you too guys.
Louis began to sweat too much while listening to this.
Then william said: sorry brothers, sorry comrades, me and sherlock received a message from billy yesterday to go back to america for another month, as he need us in a very important mission, so we need to leave tomorrow, sorry for this short visit, but we will back , so wait for us please, and we are happy to see you today.

Louis, Fred, James bond, Mycroft all looked to each other shocked and with a big sigh !!
William and Sherlock looked at them and said, what is wrong guys, why all of you sighed, and shocked, what happened ?
Louis said while laughing let us begin the dinner, and welcome everyone.

In that hard night we had me and sherly, I said to these nasty gangs, with red eyes like blood: do you really think that repentant people erase their demons and live like angels, NO, of course NOT, they do not erase their demons, but hiding them, taming them, imprisoning them, and using them whenever its needed, and I think I need to use the lord of crime's demons again, and NOW, say your final words and wait me in hell.

Liam threw the gun that was with his hand, and grabbed a wooden dowel with nails, and made a sieve out of those gangs in front of him, that nigh was so bloody.

(It is true that sherly helped with the erasing of the lord of crime, but he is the only one who can make him back again !)

Ardent.liam & Sherliam_holmes_moriarty – Collab Post -

Our encounter on a luxury cruise drifting through the waves

I saw the wise heart that I always longed for

I saw the vibrant keen heart that I always wished for

And on the certain grand staircase, our story begin to unveil

I found you once again in a south bound train

Underneath the serene crimson sky that reflected upon your eyes

Our path continued to cross in an inevitable journey

Beyond the vast verdant field that resembled your soul

And at that moment I realized it has to be you

Days passed by while you remained unfading in my memory

Surely there is no one comparable with you

As the fate reunited us again

Our sorrowful resolve over the cold and brisk river

I called on you, had one's heart set on you

And at last I went to you, caught you and stayed with you

After the dinner, sherly and liam went outside in the garden to talk -

Sherly: you can remove it liam, your eye patch, you do not need to wear it between your friends and your family, especially me, I, we all accept your scars.

Liam looked down, and removed the eye patch from his eye, then picked a crimson rose and put it in front of his injured eye and said: will my injured eye be beautiful as this rose ?

Sherly: yes liam, beautiful and thorny, hard and soft, delicate but determinant, kind with a touch of power, exactly as you, exactly as your scars.

Liam smiled while looking down then said: thank you sherly for the continuous support, thank you for staying with me, before, now and in the future.

(Sherly smiled softly understanding that liam want their friendship to continue until their last breath.)

Our scars are precious because they tell our old pains and show our present determination and will to move on.

Sherly screaming with desperation to the lonely sky above the hospital -

I KNOW LIAM, I KNOW THAT I TOLD YOU, I WILL WAIT YOU AS MANY DAYS AS YOU NEED TO WAKE UP.. !

BUT DAMN I DID NOT THINK IT WILL BE THIS HARD, (then with a soft voice while crying smoothly), sorry liam, I never thought that it will be this hard to wait, it was so so so hard to wait you.

(He screamed again while looking to the sky) LIAAAAM , I AM STILL WAITING, AND I WILL KEEP WAITING, SO WAKE UP PLEASE, wake up please (he shed some tears then left).

In a parallel world -

(You do not know my dear, you never knew that I am waiting impatiently for that day, the day of my death, in that day I will shake off all the weight and the burdens from my heart and my chest and go up free, completely free, my dear liam, I am very tired now, very tired, when I will meet you again and forever ? when, my dear, when I can rest ?)

This was the last thing Sherlock wrote in his diary before leaving this world and joining his dear friend, Sherlock fought his grief and despair for a long time after the death of his friend William James Moriarty, he tried his best to live and overcome, to live on and forget or at least forgive himself for not saving William, but he failed in all of this, at the end he decided to end all of this pain and leave this world forever, this world was so small to contain his grief shattered heart.

John looked up at the sky and said: may you rest in peace you and your dear friend William.

Sherly hearing sounds of footsteps coming from liam's room at 4 am, he knocked the door.

Sherly: liam are you still awake , can I enter ?

Liam: yes sherly, come please, (sherly grabbed liam shoulder and made him sitting on the bed)

Sherly: liam …

Liam: what sherly ?

Sherly: that scar under your eye …

Liam: what is wrong with it ?

Sherly: is enough, this scar is enough, tight liam, you do not need to think more and deeply about atoning.

Liam: do you think this sherly ?

Sherly: sure liam, sure, now take a rest and sleep, do not think more.

Liam: thank you sherly, thank you for clearing my thoughts.

Sherly addiction –

Liam: actually one of the hardest times we have, me and sherly, is when we was dealing with his drugs addiction, he wanted to stop all of this desperately, he did not like himself in this miserable state, his nasty look while doing drugs, so he decided to stop that, actually he always wanted to stop it, but no one was able to help him or encourage him, until I came one day, I hold sherly from his shoulder and told him, let us do this together sherly, let us do it together, then sherly cried heavily like a child.

And from the next day, we sought the medical advice, and began to deal with his addiction, it was so hard for him at first to deal with his withdrawal symptoms, he suffered from anxiety, insomnia, and hallucinations, he sometimes was crying and isolating himself, he was sweating so much, felt embarrassed and guilty, but I told him to not worry, he took care of me when I was sick, and I will do the same.

His withdrawal symptoms made him think slower, or hardly, which was making sherly went crazy and sad, he was screaming.

(sherly: liam, I cannot think liam, I need the drug , I need it please !)

But in these cases I was hugging him and saying to him softly, no sherly, you can , you can think, just take a deep breath and focus.

This continued for 4 months, until he was completely recovered.

These days were so hard, but because sherly was so strong he made it, as he is the one who gave me the strength to live again, so I wanted to give him my strength too, my dear sherly.

Liam: I mentioned before that me and sherly had nights together on the roof smoking and talking about work, but what I like about our way in sitting (as we are sit back to back), is that I enjoy playing with sherly hair, it is so soft and silky, and I think sherly noticed that, I remember that he told me once, (liam I wanted to cut my hair, but after we began to sit on the roof, I changed my decision in cutting it, you enjoy it liam, so I will keep it.)

Sherly: you know liam ?, I dreamt about you having one wing, you were in the wood alone waiting for someone, so , are you ok, I think my subconscious mind feeling something about you, I cannot feel ?

Liam stood up from his chair, he took sherly hand and whispered in his ear: yes sherly, because I always have just one wing, I was never free, never, until I found you, my other wing, you freed me, and freed my soul.

Liam held sherly hands with a soft smile and said: thank you sherly, thank you my dear friend, for saving me, thank you for giving me the sight for a future I nearly missed, thank you for lightening my vision to see and hoping for the things that I was always afraid from thinking about, for giving me a bright and calm future, I thought I do not deserve, thank you for being with me, in the past, in the present, and in the future too.

Together in new york, we have no others, but each other -

Liam: my sherly, why the sky look so beautiful ?

Sherly: because you are under it … my liam !

About liam – from Your dear friend sherly

You have the wings of evil

Yet the heart of an angel

You have the eyes of an executioner

Yet the mouth of a lover

You have the hand of a butcher

Yet the texture of a fairy

You have the mind of a war master

Yet the spirit of a hero

And you think you are the demon

You are the enemy

While in fact you are the savior

You are the friend

My savior and my dear friend liam

In a red evening in the embracement of the sunset in his apartment in new york, liam woke up with a headache, he put his hand on his forehead and said, oooh what is this, is this a dream ?

Oooh, long time no see my dear brother albert, I wonder what you are doing now ?

And what the dream was about, ooh yes he was talking to me..!

(Albert: my dear brother William, I wanted to color this world with beautiful colors, but the only color that suit my plan is crimson, so will you accompany me in my mission ?

William with a soft confident smile: sure I will brother, let us paint this world with the colors it deserve.)

Liam raised his head toward the red sky and said, I miss you brother, I miss you, and everyone else.

Liam: what do you want to Christmas sherly ?

Liam completed while looking away from sherly: we have been living together for 2 years, you gave me what no one was able to give me, so I wanted to give you what can make you happy my dear … (liam turned his face to see sherly opening his arms with a warm smile)

Sherly: liam no need to think about the gift, I already had my gift 2 years ago when we both survived the fall and lived together, our days together, your warm touches, your sweet words, and you being with me is my gift, come closer liam, do not be shy..

Merry Christmas liam

Merry Christmas sherly

Late night confessions, liam confess to sherly, babbling words ..!

Liam: do you know what sherly ? people used to ask me why you are giving a lot for the ones around you without giving yourself anything, you will end being shattered into piece, and your heart will be burned alive, then you will die empty, so I told them, that I am already shattered into pieces, and I am just giving those pieces to the people around me to not wasting them.

I did not want to bury my heart with me, at least I wanted it to be free, even without me, I believed that if my heart is free after my death, my soul might be able to rest in peace, I hoped for that, I really hoped for that.

Sherly smiled softly and said: you are so kind liam, so kind to the point that you forgot to be kind to yourself.

I will be the one who will give you the lost kindness you are looking for.

(liam crawled slowly to sherly arms to let himself being embraced by sherly warm hug)

Liam grabbed sherly from his shoulder, he put his head on sherly head and said -

(before the ending of the year, to the friend who grabbed my hand and never let it go, you are all I have, please stay)

And in another story liam said -

(To the one who never left my hand, to the one who never forget me, to the one who waited me unconditionally, thank you from the bottom of my heart)

Happy new year sherly,

Happy new year liam.

Sherly while looking to the gangs in front of him, with rage, loath and disgustingness, protecting liam head with his hand, he screamed loudly and devilry to the nasty gangs in front of him: "listen to me you little rats, I risked my life once to save liam and I will do it over and over, until my last breath, and never think that I hold this gun just for showing, (then he laughed loudly with a rage voice): it is not an accessory I have it, and you will be surprised to know that I killed many before you, so say your last words and burn in hell.

Then sherly added: oooh right, I usually kill people at once, I have a heart you know, but for you the things will be different, so it is ok to scream, it is ok to cry, men cry too you know ..!

Sherly began to shoot them on their limbs first, in the arms, in the legs, in the toes, everywhere but not the abdomen, not the chest, not the head, until he made a sieve out of them, then sherly added: do you think I will give you the bullet of mercy, (sherly smirked devilry and said): unfortunately I will not, good bye and burn in hell.

Sherly threw a lightening match that burned everything and went outside with liam ..!

If william sent a letter to sherly to say ...
- I wanted to be with you -
- But I can't, so I should leave -

Sherly will send a letter to liam to say ..
- You was always with me -
- And I will not let you leave alone -

Liam with a low head and depressed voice saying: sherly, I sometimes see you staring to the sky for nearly an hour or less recently, I guess maybe it is because you miss your family, your brother, friends and others in London, and I spend the last week thinking thoroughly about how I can tell you this, but I wanted to be plain with you, I wanted to support you in any possible way.

Liam got closer to sherly and said while looking to his eyes: sherly I am sorry, because of me, you miss your family and your life in London, because of me, you cannot talk to them or even send a letter, sherly I am sorry for making you feel like this, sometimes I feel like I am just destroying you here, while you are giving me all of you, constantly.

Sherly I want to be your back that can anchor you, I want to be the words that can comfort you, I want to the shoulder that you can lean to, when you cannot carry yourself anymore, I want to be the arm that will give you the warmness when you are looking for it , open it up to me sherly, I do not want to be a burden for you, a reason of your misery here.

Sherly smiled to liam with teary eyes: see liam why sometimes I cannot tell you what is going on inside me, because you already know it, and I am too weak to tell you words that can hurt you, too weak to be able to think that my thoughts may hurt you, but you always beat me with your magical psychological profiling, but liam you should know, that I embrace and love every moment I am spending here with you, regretting nothing of what I did, and saving you was the best decision I ever made in my entire life, Nothing to be sad about when I am here with you (Sherly grabbed liam and hugged him tightly)

A sound with an echo came from a far: Sherly, sherly, sherly where are you, come, the lunch is ready.
Liam approached sherly, he took the book from his hand and said: sherly are you ok, you have been absent for nearly half an hour sitting like this and thinking with a bland face, I wonder if there is some thoughts you love to share with me ?

Sherly opened his eyes and said with a soft smile: oh no nothing liam, I just love the afternoon sun, its warmness and breathtaking view at this time of the day.
Liam smiled with closed eyes: ooh is that so, ok sherly, do not be late I will go before you.
(Sherly smiled a little and said to himself: oooh god, I spent half an hour thinking about the crazy coincidence and adventures that led me to my fate in meeting liam... I just still cannot believe it, that I met someone like him, I think I think I used all my luck in my life in meeting him, but what I want more, this is even more than I ever thought, I wonder .. !?)

Sherly asked liam while sitting on the roof in one of the summer evenings: what is true love liam, how you define it ?
Liam looked to the sky and stroked his blonde hair while saying: do you know what, sherly? , love is the only thing that I do not want to understand, I want it to stay ambiguous, I want it to stay very far yet very close to me, I do not want to find a definition for it.

Liam got closer to sherly and looked to his eyes and completed: sherly you cannot define love, love define itself when it come, you feel love, you do not understand it.
Then Liam put his hand on sherly chest and completed: Love come as a soft arrow into your heart, filling it with blooming roses and lilies, and it will be too late when you realize that you are already being devoured by love, but let it devour you, because you will be reborn again after being burned in its flames.
You will reborn again from the ashes of love, to turn into a beautiful phoenix or a dark nasty crow !!

Sherly moved his head to the side and made a soft sigh while closing his eyes slowly: I can see liam, thank you .

"The man who is sitting in the center of his web like a spider, controlling and devouring everything come across him, except one blue butterfly that was strong enough to tear that web and put a kiss on the spider forehead "

This is the tale of the forbidden love between a nasty spider and a beautiful butterfly.. !

"William walked slowly toward sherly with dead eyes, he grabbed sherly shirt and said: sherly, I cannot , I cannot bear it anymore, the demon, the demon is inside me, it getting bigger and bigger, he is devouring me, I feel the blood covering me, all of my body, all of my soul.

(Liam screamed to sherly): sherly, what do you know about me, did you know that I killed when I was 10, just 10 years, do you know that I was ready at any moment to cut a piece of flesh from someone chest when I was 9, listen sherly, this is me, a demon, a demon who look only for his desires to blood, but I really did not want that, the demon is devouring me, the desires are devouring me, sherly I want to stop all of this ... !

Sherly grabbed liam and screamed: Liam hold yourself, you are stronger that this, you are not a demon, and there is no demons who are devouring you, (Sherly completed with a soft voice): you have desires, it is ok, all people has desires, you were obligated to do this, you had no choice that time, it is not your fault, life was so hard for you, but I know you can overcome all of this, I am sure.

(Sherly put his hand on liam chest and completed):I trust you liam, I trust your heart and your soul, (Sherly came closer to liam and whispered): see liam I have desires too, I have demons too inside me, look at my hands, they are shivering, I want madly to take drugs, I want to smoke, I am angry from those gangs the last night, I wanted to kill them, sometimes I feel that I can kill easily if I needed, but I do not let these desires eating me, neither suppressing them, desires should not be suppressed but should be tamed, tame your desires, tame your demons liam, live in peace with them, control them, do not let them control you ... you are strong enough to do this "

"It has been 2 years since we began to live together-

In one of those nights where we talk and discuss about ourselves, laying on the mattress on the roof looking to the sky embracing the beautiful stars, I asked liam in a matter of curiosity: liam do you have any regrets?

Liam replied: no sherly, I regret nothing, regrets bring only resentment and agony, an unnecessary agony, I do not regret what I did, as I believed that it was necessary and it was the only way I could think about that time, but I know it is wrong…. !

Because of this I will live to atone my crimes, I will live and work to compensate for what I did, I will live to not let any bit of regrets to enter my heart, In the future when I become older, I am sure that I will remember my crimes from the past, but I will remember too that I did my best to atone for these crimes, (liam looked to sherly with a warm and soft smile and completed) so I can die and rest in peace, With no resentment, no pain, no regrets, with beautiful and warm memories.

Sherly moved his head toward liam and smiled a soft smile, he grabbed liam hand and caressed it softly then said: I am happy for you liam, and I am happier that I am with you now, Liam you are teaching me something new every day, when I saved you, I thought that I will be the one who will teach you about life, but instead you were the one who is constantly teaching me.

Sherly Crying -

Liam entered sherly room to see him crying, he said: sherly are you crying, why, are you ok, is something hurt you ?

Sherly: no liam, nothing, I just felt that I need to cry, but do not worry, I am ok, it is just that crying make me feel better, giving me the strength for tomorrow, and it letting me pour out all my stress and pain, actually I used to cry at nights when you were in your coma, I was feeling cold, alone and insecure in those days, (Sherly corrected his sitting position and completed) in the past when I was feeling like this, I was smoking and taking drugs, but now I do not want to do that, I tried my best to keep my health at its extreme, waiting for you to wake up, so I can take care of you in your recovery, (sherly caress liam cheek and said) so do not worry liam, everything is good.

Liam was shock, in severe pain and some tears began to fall from his eyes and said:

Sherly, I did not know that you was feeling like this, I am sorry because I could not support you enough … !

(liam held sherly hands and continued): see sherly, me too, I cry in some nights too and for the same reasons, but it is ok for me, me , my life, my health, worth nothing for me, but you, you risked the most precious thing you have for me, to save me, so I cannot see you like this, I cannot see you shattering and suffering for someone like me, someone who never treasured his life.

(Liam burst in tears and started sobbing): sherly, me, I never treasured my life, my life was the least important thing for me In the past and now, but your life is the most precious thing to me now, so please , do not suffer alone, at least if you need to cry, cry on my shoulder, if you need to scream, scream on me, if you need someone to hug you, my arms are always open for you , sherly you risked your most important thing (your life) for me, so I am ready to risk everything I have for you... but now at least allow me to risk my nights and days for you, to support you, to embrace you, to help you, and make you feel better.

Sherly hugged liam strongly and burst in tears, both cried like children that night, and from that moment, each other shoulders become the stand that anchor each other heads and each other tears when they needed.

Liam: I can reassure for all of you that I am a very blessed man, I lived the life I wanted, and met the people that I never thought that I will meet one day, I saw a lot of pains, but also every beautiful emotion, I got a lot of warm people around me supporting me, my brothers , my comrades, and of course my sweet cheerful friend sherly.
sherly by meeting you, I consider myself a very lucky man, thank you for existing in this world.
Let us begin our golden era that is crowned with our warm and tight feelings, beautiful and unprecedented friendship that will never die.
It is the golden era of sherliam, let the history record this !!

February 2022, A very special date, when the story of the biggest and most incredible friendship began ..!

The lost scene on the roof -

"William took sherly hand and put it on his chest and said: sherly do you feel that, do you feel my heart, it is breathing, it breathe a fresh warm feelings, it beat like the heart of a new born child.
My heart was a dry and cracked field of dead lilies, you came to me and planted your beautiful irises in these cracks, these warm fresh irises watered my lilies so I became alive again, and that dry cracked field turned into a heaven garden, which derived its life from your existence,(liam closed his eyes and completed with a warm smile) and if the irises die the lilies die too sherly.

The days of suffering, pains and blood finally ended
And the new beautiful world is awaiting him
This is the story of a survivor man, who intended to live his life fully with the love he has for himself and for the determination he has for his future
This is the story of the hope after the misery
The love after the hatred
The life after the death
The determination after the lost
The story of a fragile lonely soul that has been watering by a lovely warm soul
The story of a beautiful phoenix who was reborn from the ashes of his pain and sins
This is the story of the great man who saved England in the shadow and the great detective who saved the heart of that great man
They are the lost light of England
And most importantly, they are each other lost light, whom finally found each other.

"Liam: do you know what sherly? I always considered myself a person who live with pain normally, I believed that these pains will iron my soul and discipline it.
But do you know what will happen if you left the iron on the piece of cloth for a longer time ? it will burn...!
So it is ok to feel a little pain !, but a lot of pain will burn everything inside and outside of me, because of this sherly, that day I decided to leave, I decided to leave before being burned, because I knew that a nasty dark crow would rise from my ashes, because of this sherly, I wanted to leave before being completely burned and before turning into an ugly crow.

(Sherly got closer and hold liam head: it is ok liam, now everything ended, and you do not have to suffer anymore)

My demons, My mirrors -

(It is not important how many times you are trying to destroy me, I will always come back to you, I am inside you, and you are inside me, we are the two faces of one coin, the angel and the demon.

And every time you try to skin me, a dark crow will grow from me, every time you are trying to burn me, a nasty beast will come out from the ashes.

It is not important how many times you try to wipe me, I will back, stronger, thicker, darker and more determinant than before.

Worse and more brutal.

Liam rubbed his eyes and showed a big determinant grin then said to the lord of crime in the mirror in front of him: yes sir, you can come back many times as you want, because my leashes are always ready for you, but unfortunately you cannot destroy me, because you are not even exist ... and I do not believe in ghosts... !

Liam left the bathroom, he raised his hair, put his eye patch and said to sherly: come on sherly, the game is a foot ... !

(Don't you ever tame your demons, but always keep them on a leash)

Hozier - arsonist's lullaby

William and Louis secret conversation after the dinner -

Louis smoothly touching william eye patch and smile softly while saying: do not worry brother, this scar and this beautiful eye of you, are your pride and my pride too, we read shakespeare richard III together, do you remember how richard scars were his pride because he is a king, scars are the mark of a king, the mark of a hero, they are the mark of a survivor, we are the kings of our lives, the heroes of England and the survivors of our story, I am proud of you, as much as you are proud of me, thank you for returning to us my dear brother william.

(William smiled a soft smile, he closed his eye and let a soft tear escaping from it and hugged louis tightly)

If you asked us what we love and what we hate the most, This will be our answer.. !

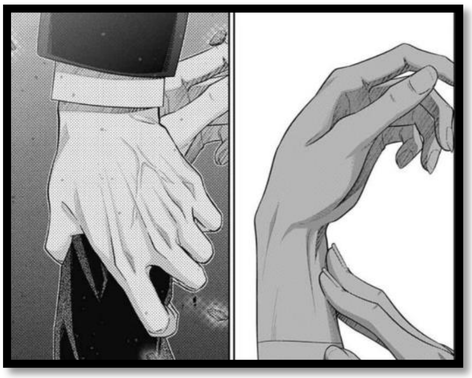
"We love the little non harmful lies..
And we hate the rude unnecessary truths.."
Sometimes it is better to tell a lie than telling a truth.
It is ok if someone died believing in a sweet lie, Not knowing the real nasty truth.
It is ok to tell people they are good even if they are not that much.
It is ok to tell people they are beautiful even if they do not reach the beauty standard you are looking for.
It is ok to tell your mother that you loved the food she made for you even if you did not like it.
Tell lies, no problem with this, But keep it to the limit.
It is ok to be kind to others.

There are 2 types of people -

Who hate and who love !

Who destroy and who build !

And these soft arms that have been embracing with love and caring were a witness of the past brutality and agony ..!



The lost scene from chapter 68 -

William and Sherlock in their apartment in america in one warm morning -

Sherly : you know what liam, you are everyone's william but you are my only liam (sherlock tilted his eyes a bit to see liam face), but liam kept looking to the sky and said with a soft grin: I know sherly !

Sherly said: you know !! ooh what an arrogant answer is this, but this answer is you, definitely you !

Liam : although you are others' sherly too beside me, but I own my own sherly, liam's sherly is the softest among them, and I know how much lucky I am to have this sherly, (liam looked to sherly with soft smile and sparkling eyes)

Sherly made a low laugh, he tilted his head down and said with a soft but determinant note: sharp as always professor !

Sherly carrying groceries: haa liam, what do you want more, I bought eggs, fish, flours, sugars and some strawberry.

Liam stood up from his chair, he approached sherly, held his hands and said: you are enough sherly ..! Sherly's eyes widened, then he closed his eyes slowly and said with a soft voice while smiling: thank you liam, you too.

The Answer -

(If you asked me, what is the thing that terrified me the most, I will tell you , my desires, I am afraid from my desires, I see sweetness in losing my life, I see pleasure in the idea of leaving this place, I hear sighing of relieves in finishing my plan, although I know that all of this is wrong, I know that all of this should not exist, but they are the ghosts in my mind, keeping following me everywhere, and I am still looking for the answer, sherly, the answer to my question, how I can live again ?, will I be able to live if I atoned ? will I be able to live if I overcame my desires in dying ?, if I crushed all these ghosts in my head ?, no equation in my life made me suffer like this, but the equation of desires was the most complicated one, that equation, is in continuous changing and facing off, so I am lost sherly, I am so lost.)

Liam looked to sherly face with a sad smile, and said (sorry sherly for bothering you with my losing soul).

Sherly hugged liam and whispered in his ear (I will wait for your answer liam, as many time as you need, I will wait days, months, years, decades, even till the grave, my waiting for you is not bound by time or place, it is bound by you, you and only you).

(Pleasure is not free in this world, I know that I should pay for it , and sometimes, I pay for it but I get fooled, I cannot find it neither getting it and I go back again shattered with all my pains and sadness, I feel that I don't deserve to be in this world, my existence is just a mistake , and I need to leave, it is all because I couldn't find my place in this world, this world is too big, yet too small to contain me.)

This is what liam found written in one billy's scattered papers on the ground in his apartment, and he found that this paper fell out from billy's diary, billy wrote it before meeting him and sherlock, in the days he was mourning and regretting not trusting his best friend garette, that pain and agony billy felt was more enormous to be contained only in his heart, not be able to share it with anyone.

Liam turned the paper (that billy wrote) and read: (This time I paid using my heart, but the next time I lose a friend, I will pay my life)
Liam put the paper back in billy diary and sighed loudly with his face toward the sky, then left to complete what he came for.

(People told me to stop burning myself for the sake of others and the good in this life, but I told them that I will keep doing this , because I know that from my ashes a beautiful phoenix will arise , I will keep doing this until that one day when I miss the right calculations and burn myself for the ones who do not deserve it, and at this time, not a phoenix will arise but a dark angry crow with flamed wings, that will by itself burn everything it touch, and a new chapter of my life will begin !!)

From William's Diaries -
Liam caught sherly reading his diaries and took it from his hands then said: do you know what sherly ?
this were my thoughts and this was my life, I was always swinging between good and evil burning myself for everything , everything was highly exaggerated in my life, and my options were only to be the evil or the angel, but I have never given the choice to be a human, and this is how everything around me crumbled, telling me I am a bird who fly in the sky while actually I am just the tiny worm who live underground !
Sherly: very interesting, nothing to be ashamed from, liam, this is how people learn, this is how people change, everything has its own price, and some people pay more than the others..!!

William's diary, 10 days before the final problem -

"I can smile at day light , because I can cry at night - just hold on a little and everything will end soon, just try to not die too soon ... !"

Sherliam - The Confession Dinner

One hour before the dinner, liam and sherly talking together in the piano room in the moriarty mansion.
Sherly screaming while hitting liam to the wall: we need to end that fast liam, we agreed to do it liam, we agreed, so do not disappoint me, and we should tell them too !!

Liam: what telling them too, now in the dinner !

Louis and fred sneaking beside the room looking from the door lock, after fred heard the screaming and told louis to come and see.
Albert and von herder walked beside them and asked louis and fred, what they are doing here and if everything is well prepared for the dinner, so louis replied: nothing we were just cleaning here and yes do not worry brother everything is well prepared.
James bond climbing the stairs while looking to louis and fred whispering to each others, he suspected a thing, but did not know what is happening !!

At the table of the dinner...
louis is looking to william with a very wide smile while looking sharply to sherlock as he want to eat him, mycroft noticed louis eyes, as he worked a lot with him and know very well when louis is hiding or stressing from something, louis looked to fred with a stress, while fred could not look to louis and afraid from looking to william face.

The mood in the dinner was so stressed and a heavy wind can be felt roaming around them with a huge silence.

After some minutes sherlock broke the silence and said: so guys, there is something we need to tell you, me and lia....
Fred screamed stopping sherlock from completing his sentence: Mr.holmes, no need to tell them, you really do not need to tell them , it is yours and Mr. william business, so you can to tell no one, it is your right, both of you.
Sherlock: why fred how do you know..., but no, no we really need to tell them, it is not just about us but about you too guys.
Louis began to sweat too much while listening to this.
Then william said: sorry brothers, sorry comrades, me and sherlock received a message from billy yesterday to go back to america for another month, as he need us in a very important mission, so we need to leave tomorrow, sorry for this short visit, but we will back , so wait for us please, and we are happy to see you today.

Louis, Fred, James bond, Mycroft all looked to each others shocked and with a big sigh !!
William and Sherlock looked at them and said, what is wrong guys, why all of you sighed, and shocked, what happened ?
Louis said while laughing let us begin the dinner, and welcome everyone.

I Will Be Your Legs, So Be My Eyes

(Good morning my Dear Sherly, I wish you are feeling the best now, I enjoyed being with you in all these previous months, and I was so happy seeing these warm smiles on your lips every time you look at me to make me feel better, and I am sorry for all the lonely nights you spent crying in your room.

And now I want to tell you the truth with a wide smile on my lips, now and here, I am being crushed under the weight of my pains from the past, and the broken hopes of the future, I can't see anything in front of me, it is all black, everything around me is black and it is not a white paper that I can draw anything on, but a black one that I can't even write my name on, the papers I see are useless and not suitable for writing or drawing, and I can't count how many times I tried to draw or write on it, it is not important how much I tried this, nothing appear, and everything is vanishing around me, everything become dark and meaningless, it is the endless pain and despair that I feel over and over, and continuously, I have been crushed under my endless pain and loss, I am nothing, I am useless, I am just a burden to this life and I do not deserve to live, it is not important how much I tried to see the ways of the future and the roads to the light, how much I tried to draw these roads, how much I tried to think of them or imagining them, I always find nothing, nothing, NOTHING JUST NOTHING, I got tired from these endless loss and pain, and everything around me feels like an illusion like the mirage in the desert .. so I decided to leave, forgive me sherly, forgive me for being a coward and useless to you, forgive me for making you losing your legs, forgive me for spending endless night crying from pain and despair, although I lost my both eyes, but I can't forgive myself for being the cause of your suffering, I don't want to cause more suffering to you, you will be better without me, I hope you will find a happy life that I am not in, I don't deserve to be with you, good bye sherly).

Liam

This is what William wrote before leaving their apartment at 2 am, he put the letter on the table in the living room, and left the apartment to a nearby abandoned building, he climbed the stairs to the rooftop, then he climbed the short wall of the rooftop, he opened his arms and smoothly felt the cold breeze slapping his dead face, he listened closely to the low voices of the footsteps on the street, and to the voices of people talking beside cafes, he shed some tears and took the first step toward the street below him, toward his end.

A sound of crashing on the street, blood scattered everywhere, ambulances sounds and people screaming and gathering around the corpse on the street, the sound of screaming and crying can be heard from nearby buildings, this is what William and Sherlock saw and hear while they were on the rooftop of that abandoned building.

Before 30 minutes, Sherlock heard the footsteps of William and the sound of the door of their apartment getting closed, he wore his cloth and rushed after William with his wheelchair, he ride his wheelchair as fast as he can, until he reached the building and saw William climbing the stairs, and in a rush he left his wheelchair and climbed the stairs crawling, he crawled to the rooftop and grabbed William coat with his strong hands and before saying anything, a worker from the next building fell from the 5th floor while working, the poor man he was just a worker and fell by accident.

Sherlock grabbed William hand and pulled him strongly that William fell on his lap, William touched Sherly cheeks, face and hair to recognize the face of the one under him, William grabbed sherly hands and touched the skull ring and said, (sherly is that you ?), sherly replied, (yes liam, it is me, where do you think you are going and leaving me here alone, if you want to leave, why not taking me with you, we are both desperate now, and I realized that this life is harder than I thought, as I was keeping all my feelings to myself before, but now I want to speak truly, - sherly completed with a grin - so why not leaving together liam ?), liam smiled while caressing sherly hair and said, (yes sherly, let us go to heaven together, we do not have a place in this world anymore, let us go to Brooklyn bridge, lead me sherly), sherly replied, (I will be your eyes liam, so be my legs, carry me and let us go to where we should belong, to our freedom, to a place better than this … !)

One month has passed since Sherlock Holmes and William James Moriarty disappeared, Billy searched desperately for both of them without finding any traces, no one know where they went, no one saw them, no one know if they are alive or dead, no one know anything about them, and Billy fell in a deep despair and depression, actually Billy has a glimpse of what maybe happened to them but was not sure, he wanted to get this idea out of his head, he did not want to think about this possibility, but for some reasons he could not.

Two weeks later in the one of the warm mornings, a group of boys who was playing on the shore of Brooklyn bridge found a ring with a skull on it, and a black eye patch, Billy was passing by them when he saw the eye patch and the ring, he rushed to the boys and took the ring and the patch from their hands, he stood silent with severe pain, he raised his head to the sky and shouted loudly with a curse, then punched the wall beside him strongly until some bloods dripped from his hand, he took the eye patch and the ring and put them on the desk in his apartment before leaving to the agency.

In the same time in London -

Louis and Mycroft are sitting together discussing some important cases of the MI6, before a sudden chest pain attacked them together, a big cloud of despair and sadness roamed the room, they looked to each other and said, (we lost something so precious, something we will never be able to see again, - their eyes widened and they said together - brother ! – Louis said, brother William and Mycroft muttered, sherly !)

A Day Together, Do Not Leave My Hand, Do Not Leave My Heart

Chapter 1: The Afternoon On The Sofa –

A thin elegant body laying of the soft sofa under the red velvety sunrays that brush the golden silky hair smoothly and slowly like a French kiss.

He raised his hand and put it on his head: aaah my head, I hate this headache,(he looked to his watch and said) "it is just 3 pm, it is still afternoon".

Liam was babbling with himself because of his headache, not noticing his surrounding, and when he tried to raise his other hand, he realized it was grabbed tightly from the wrist by someone, he turned his gaze and what he saw, is a beautiful childish face with sapphire eyes. Sherly was grabbing Liam hand like a mother grabbing her child hand by wrist tightly, to not lose him.

Liam raised his hand and put it on Sherly face wiping it softly and said calmly: "Sherly why you are sleeping here? wake up, and can you leave my hand please, I need to go to wash my face".

Chapter 2: In The Kitchen –

A very beautiful smell came from the kitchen, "is this the smell of a stargazy pie? (Liam concentrated his senses and said) and is this Darjeeling tea too ?"
He went to the kitchen, his eyes widened and he was astonished seeing a man with good posture, and a long silky beautiful hair waving softly with the wind, like beautiful lilies dancing with the breeze.

Sherly turned his face to talk to Liam, and fingers of sun rays was printed on sherly cheek, mouth and nose, like an artist who is sharpening the details of his art adding strokes and bolds to the important parts, to the most beautiful parts of the painting, what a beautiful scene, what a beautiful face and posture is this, and how lucky I am being here in the right time to see his face like this, like an elegant painting.

Liam came closer to Sherly, he put one hand on Sherly shoulder and begin to talk and laugh with him to distract him from his sneaky hand that is slipping slowly to Sherly abdomen to tickle it, Sherly laughed loud and showed a little pout then said softly and calmly: "no Liam not here, you can not do that while I am cooking, I may hurt you my dear", Liam sighed and said "ok", he turned his face and walked away slowly then stopped and came back.

Liam said: "uuuhm is … is this the shirt I gave you as a gift, you are wearing it .. I thought you did not like it."

Sherly laughed loudly and said: "do you mean I did not like it because of what is written on it, let me see (if you love math you love me), it is true that I am not good at math, but I do not hate it, I know how much math is important for science and chemistry, I know that I can not live without it, and I know that I should learn it and understand it to use it in chemistry equations and other things that will help me in my field, see Liam, my relationship with math is a bit complicated…!"

He turned his face toward the sun rays from the window and completed: "math is hard and sneaky, and it does not let you understand it and enjoy it easily, it can slip easily and suddenly from your mind, you should give a big effort to be able to touch it, to inhale it, to understand it and embrace it, but once you really get the ability to enter the math world, you will be rewarded with all the creativity and the newly generated equations, riddles and other problems to solve, a whole world of new and creative problems to solve."

Sherly eyes sparkled and widened, then he walked slowly toward Liam, he grabbed Liam both hands and embraced them tightly while wiping on them softly then said: "just like you Liam, just like you, you are sneaky, hard to understand, silent and you can slip from my hands at any time."

Sherly Completed: "Liam, I liked the effort I needed to be with you, I liked the hidden treasures you have in your mind and soul, those treasures of your thoughts, words and creativity that I can only see if I studied you enough, if you allowed me to enter you and inhale the hidden worlds of you, the worlds that I always longed for, longed to be in, and longed to be part of."
"I like these soft spontaneous words of you, your laughs, jokes, and your sneaky hands that always slip slowly to touch me, when I am sad, I am down and heavy, I like those glib thoughts, complains and riddles that you can not wait to share it with me, bottom line my dear Liam, I love every single detail related to you and your worlds, and so the shirt you gave me of course."

Sherly put his hand on his neck and smiled softly while closing his eyes: "Liam I am sorry that you thought that I did not wear it, I always wear it under my suit when we work, it is warm and has a velvety touch, thank you my dear."
Liam took his hands from Sherly hands and said while looking to Sherly eyes with a warm smile: "do you want to hear one of those spontaneous beautiful words that you liked from me ?"

Sherly nodded his face happily and said: "yes sure."

Liam said: "Sherly my mind and life were a whole uncompleted pale puzzles that began to shed piece by piece until I realized that the day for that puzzle to be completely lost and smashed will come eventually, so I decided to ended everything including my life, before seeing that puzzle being scattered and shattered into 100s of pieces, but at that time, the time of climax and exploding you came to me, you held me, you raised me, you fixed my bleeding wings, colored my pale puzzles, and collected it again for me… just for me … you did that because you wanted me alive and you wanted to be with me, not because you needed me in your plan or to arrest me alive or to fill your ego by saving me, and this what ignited the biggest fire in my heart and mind, the biggest and softest warm sensation I ever had, (Liam walked slowly and stood behind Sherly added a soft touch on Sherly waist while putting his chin on Sherly shoulder then whispered while smiling, "thank you Sherly")."

Chapter 3: The Balcony –

Both Liam and Sherly hold the stargazy pie and the cups of tea then went to the balcony to eat it and discuss the cases they have while eating …

Sherly: ok Liam look here, this is the case of Mr. martin, he was accused of bank robbery, the bank president accused Mr. martin that he sent some mercenary to the bank at night 2 weeks ago and they steal 3 million dollars, according of what he reported to the police in the morning after the robbery night, the report mentioned that the money treasury was found opened and 3 million dollars were missed, but there is something not normal with this case Liam …!

Liam completed: I know Sherly what it is not normal, as there is no broken doors or windows, everything was found intact, just the lock of the treasury was found broken and it was found smashed in a way to destroy it not to open it ..!

Sherly: exactly Liam, and this lead us to a conclusion, that the bank president is the one who took the money and wanted to accuse Mr. martin, as they have an unpleasant past with a lot of conflicts, blackmailing and fraud, but we still need more evidences to put him in charge of the robbery …!

Liam: the next case is about Mr. Richard, he sent a report to the police station that the homeless children who usually came around his house disappeared, then in the next day a new homeless children appear suddenly then disappear again and this happened again and again for a whole month, he said that he know that homeless children do not stay in one place and change it regularly for begging, but this place is near to a church and they usually got a lot of donations and foods from this church and other nobles and religious people who come to the church, so it is a bit unusual for the homeless to leave a place like this, this fast ...!

Sherly: yes Liam and the fact that new homeless children appear just after the disappearance of the old ones, indicate that this place is just a big Human trap, and it is operated by some people ..and no doubt they will be the human traffickers, as they are kidnapping those children, and I am sure there is another big net of those human traffickers whom convince these children to come to this area for begging to be kidnap them later ... !

Liam: this will be a huge mission, and we will need help, OK NOW, our priority should be catching those human traffickers an.......

(While discussing and eating), Liam spilled some of the pie on the side of his mouth, involuntary Sherly took a tissue and began to wipe Liam mouth to clean it from the food stain, but Sherly suddenly stopped and lowered his head, then said: "sorry Liam I did this as out of habit, just as exactly when you was weak and I was in charge of taking care of you."
Sherly wanted to pull his hand away from Liam mouth, but Liam grabbed his hand tightly and said softly while smiling: "it is ok Sherly, this is not bothering me, on contrary I am happy that you are still taking care of me."

Liam took some food and stain Sherly mouth with it, then wiped it with a tissue and said, (while smiling softly): "see my dear Sherly I can wipe your mouth too when you stain it."

These words came as a very soft and warm shot inside Sherly heart, he felt a very warm and unimaginable numb sensation inside him, his sapphire eyes sparkled under the red purple rays of the sunset sun, and the view was breathtaking this evening, the red purple color of the sunset sky reflected on Liam pale face and colored it with a warm pink color and turned him into a fairy from the old fairy tales, being mixed with the scarlet color in his wide eyes, he become one of the fantasy characters.
They both turned red and a big warm smile was painted on their faces, and they began to laugh together, deeply and genuinely.

The sun sets and a beautiful elegant moon appeared in the smooth navy blue sky, both of them went inside the apartment and closed the balcony door as the cold breeze began to enter the living room, they went both to the kitchen, taking with them the cups and plates, they cleaned it and cleaned the kitchen then headed to the living room.

Chapter 4: The Living Room, Chess, Puzzles And Memories –

Liam left the kitchen after ending washing the dishes, then Sherly followed him, he raised his arm and round it around Liam neck, he lowered his head and turned it to face Liam eyes, and said: "haa Liam, what do you want to do ? chess or puzzles and riddles ?"

While Liam is playing with Sherly hair, he began to think deeply about what he really want to do this evening, he kept silent for seconds until Liam said: "ok Sherly let us end our chess game, then thinking what we will do after this" … then Liam said: "no, wait Sherly, memories, it is the memories, let us get back some of our adventures together in the last 2 years", Sherly laughed and said, "yes Liam why not, it will be funny."

Liam raised his head and said: sherly, do you remember that case when you jumped from the balcony of the 4th floor, I went crazy, I followed you, but you bastard, you knew there was another balcony bigger in the 3rd floor, so you knew that you will not fall to the ground, how TF you did it ?

Sherly said while laughing: easy Liam, you jumped once, and I just did the same again … oh by the way, do you remember that night when I was beaten so bad by one of the gangs, and you turned into a real devil, I heard you saying this to the gangs, (do you really think that repentant people like me, erase their demons and live like angels, NO, of course not, they do not erase the demons, but hiding them, taming them, imprisoning them, and using them whenever its needed, and I think I need to use the lord of crime's demons again, and NOW, say your final words and wait me in hell), then you threw your gun and grabbed a wooden dowel with nails.. ! , this night was so bloody, and for real, Liam, with no lies, you were so cool, SO COOL LIAM.

Liam felt embarrassed and said : what sherly ? you were awake, did you hear me ? ooh no, but sherly that night, I could not bear the idea of losing you, I could not hold myself, I felt like I am burning from inside, (Liam lowered his head and painted a confident smirk on his face) it is true sherly that you helped with the erasing of the lord of crime, but you are the only one who can bring him back.

Sherly looked astonished and surprised from Liam words, but he lowered his head and said with a soft smile: "indeed Liam, indeed), and an atmosphere of silence began to cover the room."

Liam broke the silence and said energetically: So do you remember the case when you used a fake gun, that contain fireworks, as I asked you why a fake gun, you told me they are so coward to use a real gun for them, but really why the fireworks, why making noises.

Sherly: aaah yes this was for bringing some police, but ooh god, I forgot this is America, no police came so we used the plan B and hit them, both looked to each other and began to laugh uncontrollably.

Both said together: "ok then let us continue our chess game", Sherly moved the queen to protect the king, then Liam moved the bishop to the left etc… after 4 rounds, Sherly screamed while laughing, "checkmate Liam", Liam turned his face and sighed with a small smile then said, "oooh Sherly it is 1 to 10 now, it is your first time winning the game, Sherly …!"
Sherly said: Liam you bastard, you won 10 times, but this time the victory is mine, no wonder you always win Liam, I mean you are the criminal mastermind here, you are the greatest strategic man I ever met, Moriarty the spider who is sitting silently in the center of his net while controlling every movement of his comrades, followers and of course his enemies too.

Then Sherly froze for a moment and jumped from his chair and said, "wait, wait, wait, liaaaam did you do this in purpose ?, you made me win on purpose, your movements are not what you always do, did you moved your bishop to let me trap your king…!!"

Liam looked away with a freeze smile and shaking tongue and said: "no…n, no Sherly , no Sherly, you really won, why you are saying this ?"
And after some discussing and screaming between them, Liam admitted that he let Sherly win on purpose, Sherly turned red and screamed: "… YOU BASTARD LIAM"… Liam told Sherly to calm down and he apologized.

Then Liam said: sorry Sherly, I am really sorry, I wanted to make you happy as this is our last night together… !

Liam Completed: So I wanted to see your smile, your laugh, your energetic movements and all other beautiful expressions you have on your face, (while looking softly to Sherly eyes and smiling Liam completed) all these little expressions on your face, your warm smile, your loud laugh, your cute eyes closed while being happy, (Liam grabbed Sherly hands from the wrists and held them like a mother holding her child hands) your delicate touches, (while smelling Sherly hair) the beautiful scent of your hair, (while smelling Sherly shirt) and that perfume of strong roses aroma, all these little details I see them, I feel them, I smell them, and most importantly I live them … my whole senses are always concentrated on you, and I am sure I will miss them too, miss them so much Sherly… so I want to live you for the last time this night.

Chapter 5: Our Last Night Together –

Liam grabbed Sherly hands from his wrists and said: "because of this Sherly I want to live you for the last time this night", Sherly turned his hands then grabbed Liam hand and intertwined his fingers with Liam fingers, Liam froze suddenly while looking astonished, Sherly tighten his grasp on Liam fingers and screamed: "Liam are you ok, what happened ?"

Liam said after smiling softly and turning red: "sorry Sherly, but I never ever in my entire life was able to see that bright shining sapphire color as I see now in your eyes, it is my first time realizing that you have a very beautiful eyes ..!"

Sherly turned red and said softly: "Liam I never knew that you see me like this, you was never that much sentimental with me, neither accepting or loving physical touches that much as today, you was solid and not so playful … but realizing that you was very good in hiding all your feelings from me through a whole 2 years, made me wonder, what more you have inside you for me ?… (Sherly put his hand on Liam hair and brush it softly then continued) but Liam you know how I see you, right ?"

Sherly completed: "You know how much you mean to me, you know what you are to me, and I am happy that I showed you everything I have for you without hiding it, and you was always happy with the care I give you, you never complained even for once… thank you Liam for everything you gave me, thank you my dear."

Sherly is a very delicate and soft person, he is always affected strongly and fast with his emotions and the people emotions around him too, he began to shed some tears and sobbing while talking to Liam, telling him that he will miss him too much, and he want to stay more with him, but he should leave for the sake of their future. Liam heart burst seeing Sherly crying, he got closer to Sherly and hugged him tightly, then whispered in his ear: "do not cry Sherly, you will not forget me, you will not miss me too, I promise you."

Liam moved away from Sherly and gave him six letters then said: "Dear Sherly, these six letters are for you and they are numbered, from number one to number six, You should open the letters according to their numbers that correspond the number of the month you are in, so open the first message in the first month, the second message is in the second month, and the third message in the third month, and so on..."

Liam completed: "Each letter contains words that will help you, benefit you and support you in your journey, each letter contains words that will suit your situation and mood in the trip in each passing month, so I wrote the words that will help you adapt to these months, I chose the words that can light your darkest roads, getting you out from the deepest wells, and bringing you back from your worst fears."

Liam put his hand on Sherly hair and began to caress it, then said: "Sherly, I studied you very well in those past two years and I know very well how you will react, feel and adapt to your surroundings, so Sherly in all the times we spent together, I was living you, living you thoroughly, and deeply, with all your details and your feelings."
Liam put a kiss on Sherlock forehead and wiped the tears from his eyes, while Sherly took Liam hand, kissed it and put it on his forehead then said: "thank you Liam for being with me .. thank you my dear."

Liam smiled and said to Sherly: "it is late night now Sherly, go to your room and sleep well, you have a long trip tomorrow and a ship waiting you very early."
Sherly said: "you too Liam, you should sleep, you have a long work day tomorrow, you will work without me from tomorrow but I know you can do it Liam, because you are better than me in many ways and I trust you."

Sherly put one hand on Liam cheek and the other with Liam hand, then said: "do not leave my hands Liam."
Liam put his hand above Sherly hand that was on his cheek and said: "do not leave my heart Sherly."
They both got closer and put their foreheads on each other and said together: "I will not, my dear."
They got apart and said.
Good night my Sherly,
Good night my Liam,

Embrace The Jealousy

Embrace the jealousy
(a poem from @marie.mbang237 for @sherliam_holmes_moriarty)

I was in despair but your words give me hope
That I was lacking of
You are my light who illuminates my dark path
And your words manage to heal my wounded heart
Your words are like a handkerchief, they wiped my tears away
I feel so happy to have such a beautiful soul as a friend
And I will never forget what you told me, you said:
You told me to embrace the jealousy
Because that's actually a normal feeling
That means I want to be a better human being
You told me also not to hate this feeling
Because that's actually healthy
Honey, your words bring colors to my monochrome life
And I love you deeply

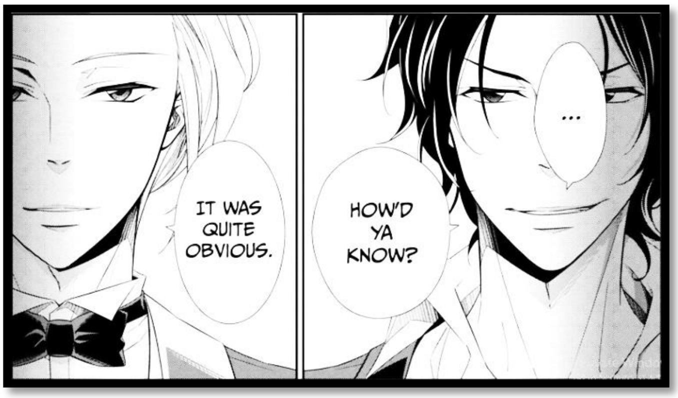
But Our Story Did Not End Yet …

See You Later

A Song That Resemble Sherliam

Hozier: From Eden

Babe
There's something tragic about you
Something so magic about you
Don't you agree



Babe
There's something lonesome about you
Something so wholesome about you
Get closer to me

No tired sigh, no rolling eyes
No irony
No "Who cares?", no vacant stare
No time for me

Honey, you're familiar
Like my mirror years ago
Idealism sits in prison
Chivalry fell on his sword
Innocence died screaming
Honey, ask me, I should know
I slithered here from Eden
Just to sit outside your door

Babe
There's something wretched about this Something so precious about this
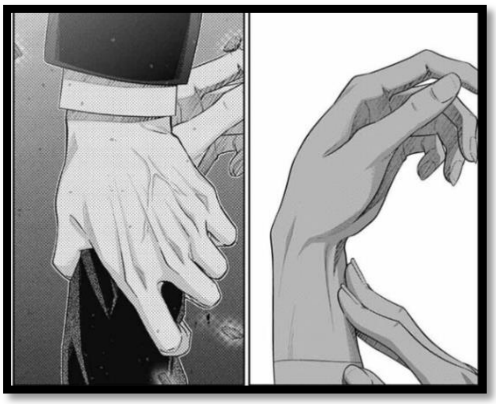
Where to begin

Babe
There's something broken about this
But I might be hoping about this
Oh, what a sin

To the strand, a picnic planned for you and me
A rope in hand, for your other man
To hang from a tree

Honey, you're familiar
Like my mirror years ago
Idealism sits in prison
Chivalry fell on his sword
Innocence died screaming
Honey, ask me, I should know
I slithered here from Eden
Just to sit outside your door

Honey, you're familiar
Like my mirror years ago
Idealism sits in prison
Chivalry fell on his sword
Innocence died screaming
Honey, ask me, I should know
I slithered here from Eden
Just to hide outside your door



MEETING YOU WAS MORE FUN THAN I COULD HAVE EVER ANTICIPATED.

I EVEN WANTED TO THROW EVERYTHING ASIDE JUST TO CONTINUE SOLVING PUZZLES WITH YOU.

I WANT YOU TO BE THE ONE BY MY SIDE IN THOSE FINAL MOMENTS, YOU AND NO OTHER.
